INTRODUCTION:

Recently Mr. Keshe said that we have to learn how to extract the hidden meanings in his teachings. This excerpt is one of those very deep hidden teaching. We have all played with magnets at some point in our life, but we never knew we were feeling the fundamental power in the Universe (U). We never knew we were feeling the source of electricity. In this teaching it is important to listen to the original many times with subtitles and try to feel the soul transmission in the silent gaps and drawings.

The part about getting electricity from the MaGrav is explained extensively in the summary. But really, this is of almost no importance when you compare it to the heart of the teaching, which is beautifully expressed in the drawing above. The MaGrav has always been about elevating the Soul of the Man (STM) to get closer to the Creator. Unfortunately, mankind is still after the crumbs of free energy, not yet understanding that if he elevates his soul, he will also receive the energy of the U and the Creator. I hope that when you hear this teaching you will understand this and move in that direction.

It's very interesting that people are running after so called, spiritual masters looking for techniques to use to get some power. Now look at the drawing at the top of the page. This is our technique - bottom coil is reproductive unit - middle coil is heart and intestine - top coil is the Soul of the Physicality (STP) in the position of the STM. Then a line going straight up to the all seeing Eye, or the Creator. What if you simply visualized this image and feel it come alive inside you.

Finally there is the example of the caterpillar spinning the cocoon and transforming into a butterfly, flying free throughout the U. This is one of the most beautiful images that truly explains our story as humanity, and our struggle to learn about our true nature and fly free.

There is so much love and knowledge in this teaching, please spend time with it and share it.
Thank you

Summary:

Mr. Keshe starts this teaching by saying, to go back nearly 7 years ago, when we first taught you the MaGrav system. We told you that, there is no difference between the MaGrav System and a solid magnet. The solid magnet is created by the earth, where you cut off a little piece of it, or the man makes it himself. The difference is that with the MaGrav System you have the ability to decide the field strength. (In the magnet the field strength is already determined).

If you put 2 solid magnets opposite to each other and rotate them, you create electric energy. All of you have been playing the wrong games, haven't you? The power station has been sitting right in front of you, all the time. What megawatts you want to get out of it? I gave you (the MaGrav, and you can set it up in the same way) as the "magnets." But your magnet is solid state, whereas this "magnet" is in the plasmatic state. Now do you see your generator? You looked for the crumbs, and I gave you the full cake. But these magnets are in a solid state, they create energy and electricity in the solid state. You put them in dimension and direction.

(There is some hidden knowledge here, but you have to first fall in love with it, and then listen to it over and over again, paying attention to the drawings. This is my interpretation from my love affair with it.

He says, the same fields are coming out of both the magnet and the MaGrav. Nobody seems to really know what electricity is. Does this mean that electricity is nothing other than a form of M fields? We know that you have to physically rotate the magnets to generate electricity, because they have a fixed field strength in the matter state. I think the faster you rotate the magnets the more electric current you get. It appears the magnets are wrapped in Cu wires to draw the current off. They told us electrons travel through the wires. Maybe some form of the M field is actually traveling along the outside of the wire? They tell us electric current only flows where there is a demand for it. This is starting to sound like plasma, where the stronger gives to the weaker. The fun part of it is, just to give ideas for all of us to think about and play with.

Let's get back to the MaGrav. Mr. Keshe said, the MaGrav fields are dynamic plasma. This means they move by themselves. You don't have to rotate MaGrav fields like we do with magnets, using coal or nuclear turbines, to rub their fields. It seems he was implying that for the matter state side, all you have to do, is to put your solid magnets across the fields of the MaGrav, and as they are already dynamic you don't need to turn anything, just find a way to take off the electric current. But you have the same problem, how to get the plasmatic fields to interact with the magnets. The main thing here is to get the imagination spinning and wondering, because it's about field interactions. If you play with magnets, holding one in each hand, and put them close to each other, you can feel the M field strength of the magnets. Then let the mind loose, this force that I am feeling, is it the same as where electricity comes from? Is this the same basic M field that everything is made out of? Suddenly you realize you are in touch with the essence of creation.)

Now my dear friends, KS, let me open your eyes to what you have had in your hands for a long time. We gave you the MaGrav system to test, and you looked only for the little thing, that little electricity that comes out the wires. The whole purpose of the MaGrav was for you to discover the fields coming out of the top.

We gave you the Cup of Universe (CU), and we gave you the Cup of Man. In your kitchen you put the pot on the fire to cook what you like, inside it. I gave you the Cup of energy (MaGrav), and I gave you the pot (CU). What would you like this man inside the pot to be?

We told you clearly for a long time, that you are missing something, that you were not connecting the knowledge. Don't go tomorrow and get a MaGrav and put a pot on it, and then put something else on it. Then you are back in the same position, as you are today. After 7 years, try to understand the field flow of the MaGrav, and the interactions of the fields. You will see, that you have one of the most powerful generators in the U.

We have brought you the knowledge, so that you can become equal in the knowledge, with the Soul of the U, the same as all the others. But you are only heating the water, and cooking the meat, while I am extending the strength of the soul of MaGrav (or STM).

Part 2

Those of you who are at the level, that you can fully comprehend what we are teaching, you understand what we have set and are planning for the coming teachings. And that is, how do we convert these (MaGrav) fields to a universal field, or to the fields of the physicality of the man, or to the fields of the STM.

I gave you the most beautiful system in the MaGrav System, if you understand it, you already have the system to fly. Go back to the recordings of the teachings when we had John in Arizona walking between the fields, not walking over the fields. Sometimes if you remember when he walked amongst the MaGrav units, he said, "I can feel." Yes, you could feel, but my dearest friend, you should have done this walk, he draws a shape through the MaGravs.

The way the systems were set, were perfect, but the knowledge wasn't there about what to do. Stop looking at the MaGrav itself, start looking into the fields of the MaGrav. The beauty of it is, you cannot make 2 systems exactly the same. So when you have a collection of MaGravs, you have a collection of the fields of the U, the same as before, interacting at the time, place, and position.

When you play the Lotto, they give you 49 numbers and you have to choose 7. There are about 18 million possible combinations to match the 7 numbers out of the 49. You'll definitely win the jackpot if you buy all of these 18 combinations. With this in mind, think about all the fields in the U, then if you are going to transfer yourself somewhere in the U, land in the same place and make sure every cell finds its correct position, then you choose how many zeros you need to add to the number, for the odds of this happening. (Which basically means it is pretty much impossible). But, because you have a soul connection with Azar (if you travel to see her in New York, given earlier in the 426 KSW), the odds are fixed. You already hit the jackpot.

Try to understand the beauty of the knowledge. You are happy with 40% energy saving for your house, living in the dimension of physicality. But if you know how to tap to the universal energy, you can supply enough energy to power your whole city, and with it, you'll receive energy in the field strength of the STM, so that you can elevate your soul to any dimension in the U.

But the beauty of it is, if one day mankind learns how to make the right kind of MaGrav that elevates the STM, then man will reach the position at the strength of the Creator. Humanity has a long way to go to create this, because he is still focusing on getting 10 kilowatts from his MaGrav.

When you look inside the shape of your MaGrav, I have given you the interaction of the dimension of the soul of the Creator. It's you who has to find it. It's you who has to understand how to make the coils in the dimension of the soul of the U, and not in the dimension of physicality.

I taught you how to make the Cup of Universe. By this, I have shown you the path to the Creator. It's you who has to unravel it, to understand it, to be able to travel on that path. I have shown you the way to the Creator. I gave you the biggest gift in the MaGrav system, and I cried many nights, "when will mankind understand?"

You were looking to elevate your soul, and by understanding the technology, I gave you a system, which covers you, to become the man of U and Unicose. A system which allows you to come closer to the Creator, to become directly part of the Creator. But unfortunately mankind is still after 30% reduction in his electricity bill, so he has no where to land in the U.

One day those who listen to these teachings of today will understand. That day, is the day of Methi, which is today, and many of your souls have been elevated to it, to be able to understand. It's your physicality, which has to accept the knowledge and to live within it.

Do not just copy, try to comprehend the knowledge. If you look at the structure of the brain of the man ... it's the same generator. If you understand how to work it, you can create the right fields to reach the dimension of the Soul of the Creator. You don't need the MaGrav, because the MaGrav system is still based on the structure of your physical life, your physicality.

Let me draw it for you. The bottom coil is your reproduction unit, the middle coil is your intestine and heart, and the top coil is dimension of STP in the position of the STM. Your body is just like the 3 stacker Unit and it is already set to go. It's you who has to understand, would you like to put your finger in the socket, and feed the energy to your house to have the lights and whatever. Or, would you feed your soul, and then receive the light of the Creator. Man has denied himself this beauty - by his own choice.

As I said many times, we come to this planet to live, and to taste the pleasures and the pains of the man, so that we can understand what has kept man away from understanding his own creation, and his own creator within himself? We had to taste and enjoy the beauty of it, to be able to understand how to attract man to the beauty of the knowledge of creation.

Now you understand the part of the teaching that you missed, that we gave you the knowledge and the system to elevate your soul. But still, I bet you, that tomorrow and in the months to come, we'll still see people making MaGrav systems to reduce their electric bill by 30%, especially now that the cost of energy has doubled. The energy of the U and the Creator is free and abundant, and comes in terawatts not in kilowatts.

I hope you understood the teaching of today, and I hope Jalal's secret team for developing MaGrav units have taken heed. Or will you still work with the MaGravs to reduce your electricity?

Thank you very much for today's teaching and I hope I opened the door in a broader way for you to better understand all the teachings of the past. In a way, we are bringing the parts together, partially for you to understand what and why we have been teaching you all of this. Also to understand where we are heading and what knowledge you'll need to have to become the passengers of the U. So that you become passengers to your soul, and not to a craft. But that's your choice. You can choose the donkey or the jet. From what we've seen, mankind at the moment, is still walking on his own legs, and has not even managed to get on the donkey, let alone a jet.

part 3 (Cocoon example)

No more powerful plasma technology has been taught, than the MaGrav systems. When I saw the Spanish couple visiting the Linz Exhibition Center, rolling their eyes when they saw the MaGrav units in the bottom of the Vertical EU. (It was as if they were saying, "oh, it's just a MaGrav unit in there.") I said to myself, "man is not ready yet to understand - we went too fast - too early.

Understanding the knowledge is exactly like what you see in the toy shop, when you go to buy a toy for your child. The age limit for using the toy is written in big numbers on the box. It means that if age 3 is written on the box, a child or 1 or 2 will not have the motor coordination to play with it. A lot of parents love to give for example, a helicopter toy for their son aged 2 or 3, even though it says, age 14 on the box. They want to say, "oh, I've bought such a good thing for my son," but the child will have to wait 10 years to gather the knowledge to be able to play with it. But the question is, did the father really buy the toy for himself, trying to be happy that the child received the toy in his name.

(Actually it's not the age, rather it's being able to understand the knowledge. Knowledge is knowledge - either you understand it or you don't, or you understand part of it.) When you reach the level of understanding, then you can play with the toy.

"The brain, the soul, the knowledge, does not fit the Soul of the Physicality (STP), that he can play with the Soul of the Universe." There is no age gap (or age limit). It's the maturity of understanding the knowledge of creation.

It's you who decides if you have reached that point, that the knowledge has been absorbed and understood. But which way did you understand it? The way it has been taught, or the way it suits you, (or you want to believe that you understand for other reasons.) (Is it possible that through a deep inner longing we can decide to understand?)

We taught you the MaGrav as a universal system, so that you can become travelers of the U, but you choose yourself to use the MaGrav for simple electricity. We even built a factory for making toys for infants - the Iran MaGrav Factory.

The problem is that the humanity, or the "child" is a new born and has not even become an infant, to be able to use what we made for him. He shows the different enhancement units in Linz and tells their relationship to each other. If you look, the systems are standing next to each other, and there is the mother sitting in the back. I was joyfully watching the commercial break and I thought, "what can I say, if you look at it, in reality, I gave you the source and the cooking pot." Now you bring me the STM, the rest is easy.

I would like to share with you, something that is for the world leaders and some of those who make decisions for many of our lives. When you look at this EU, it's no different then what you see in the life (of man). There is no better way that I can explain it. There is a story about silkworms that runs parallel in understanding about this Vertical EU, it's what you as humans can understand.

As a child in Iran on the Silk Road we used to buy these tiny black seeds, that would turn into silkworms, but at that time, we didn't understand that. We would create MaGrav field interactions with it, by putting a Mulberry leaf under it and waiting for the caterpillar to emerge as a butterfly.

The EU is that cocoon, we bring the physicality of the man inside it, and nourish it with the knowledge of creation, and you break out with the freedom of the soul - which is the point of mutation and conversion. In the future, man will make that silk cocoon from the soul of itself, and allow its STP to become embedded within the STM, and then take the flight of fancy anywhere in the U and start a new cycle of life;

Many times when I look at this system, I wonder what kind of butterflies, with which colors will come out of it. You go into the system as a moth, as a man in the dimension of physicality, and come out to take the flight of fancy across the U. Sometimes we used to keep these butterflies until they laid their eggs, and then they used to die. But the STM does not reach that point of death, he becomes part of another.

We have given you the cocoon, it's up to you to transmute into a butterfly and fly free. This is the beauty of the knowledge if you understand it. This is the part where most of you KS are lacking the knowledge. It's a time for change. We have put the seed on the Mulberry leaf, and we have seen the worm wiggling, as the man's cycle of life for thousands of years, and now we have even made you the cocoon, but it's up to you to understand it.

In the future, man will make that silk cocoon from the soul of itself, to allow its STP to become embedded within the STM, and to take the flight of fancy. But the beauty of this is, if you understand it, you can take any flight of fancy, anytime that you wish. Then you can lay your eggs anywhere in the U, as a new cycle of life.

Part 4

To transfer 1 cell across to another position, totally with all its characteristics and memories, requires a nuclear power station. It can be done. But it takes only a small MaGrav unit without any power supply, to transfer the whole STM and STP of the man to any position in the Universe. But you have to understand the knowledge.

MaGrav (1:06:20 to 1:11:30)

When I gave you this, I gave you something before. Go back, for nearly 7 years now we taught you the MaGrav system. We told you, if you look at it, there is no difference between the MaGrav System and a solid magnet. The solid magnet is created by the earth put together by man, or cut a piece and you have it. In a MaGrav S you have the ability to decide the strength. If you put 2 magnets opposite to each other, by rotation of the few, and you create electric energy. All of you lot have been playing the wrong games, haven't you? The power station has been sitting in front of you, what Megawatts you want to get out of it. I gave you the same magnet. Your magnet is solid state, this magnet is plasmatic state. Now you see your generator. (1:08).

You looked for the crumbs, and I gave you the full cake. But this is in a solid state. It creates you energy and electricity in the solid ?? state. You put them in D and direction. Now my dear friends, KS, let me open your eyes, what you have had in your hand for a long time. In a way, bringing parts together, partially for you to understand more why you have been taught all this time, where we are going, .. heading and what knowledge you need to carry to become the passengers of the U. You become passenger to your soul, not to a craft. That's your choice, choose the donkey or the jet, and mankind at the moment is still walking on the legs, from what we've seen. He has not managed the donkey, let alone the jet. Thank you .. (1:29).

MaGrav (1:37:56 to 1:50:41)

No more powerful PI T, (1:38). has been taught than the MaGrav systems. As I said when I was walking in the teaching hall in .. (Italy) , and when I saw that Spanish couple, the guy was pushing with eyes to get the team moving, and with the MaGrav unit

(oh it's just a MaGrav unit). I said the human race is not ready. We were too fast, too early.

The knowledge of understanding, as I said, it's exactly like a toy shop, when you go to buy a toy. You see on the side of the box big numbers, 3, 8, 6,12,16. Which means if you buy the one which is with a 3, and you have a child of 1, or even 2, or even 2.5 cannot play with the toy, because the knowledge, the motor coordination has not reached to be able to put a 3 year old toy together. A lot of parents love to give a helicopter, flying and everything, written on the side, 14, for the birthday of the second year, or 3rd to their son, that "oh, I've bought such a good thing," but the child has to wait 10 years, (1:40). to gather the knowledge to be able to fly.

But the question is did the father buy the toy for himself? But, trying to be happy that the child has got it in his name. The knowledge is the same, at an understanding level. When you reach to the point of understanding, you can play with the toy.

The brain, the soul, the knowledge, does not fit the STP, that he can play with the Soul of the U. But has no age gap. It's the maturity of understanding the KOC. It's you who decides that point, that knowledge to be absorbed, the knowledge to be understood, and which way understood, the way you are taught, or the way it suits me. We taught the MaGrav for universal system, become traveler of the U, and you choose a MaGrav to be plugged in and give you 30 volts. We even built a factory for the toys, for infants in Iran.

But the problem is the child is a new born, (1:42). has not even become an infant, to be able to use what is there. Now we understand and you can see. If you look the systems are standing next to each other. If you look the mother sits in the back. As I said, when you look at it, I was joyfully enjoying the commercial. I thought what can I say. If you look at it, in reality, I gave you the source, and in ?? , and I gave you the pot. You have the source, and you have the pot. Bring me the STM, the rest is easy. Would you like to go to any questions

I would like to go back to something. I conferred this to what I call, world leaders (WL), (1:44). some of those who make decisions for many of our lives. When you look at this EU, it's no different then what you see in the life. There is no better way I can explain it, then this. When you look at this VEU, I can parallel it with (a story), what you as humans understand.

This time of the year in northern hemisphere we buy, or I used to buy when I was a young boy, very small black seeds. We didn't know if it was real or not, or they sold us what we call black seed, which you get vegetation from. We used to get this black seed, it's a tradition in the Iranian culture, and the whole of Silk road. We get the leaf of the white berry (Mulberry) and we put this black seed (silk worm) on the leaf. We watch it everyday, when we came back from the school. "Mama is it still black, (1:46). mama, it's not changed?" Mama says, "see I told you, the guy gave you black seed."

Then after a few days, because we created the MaGrav field interaction of that leaf, with the seed, we created a new D of fields. This seed used to start moving, and it became a tiny little worm, and then it started eating the leaf, and then it grew, we were waiting, when it start growing, anxious time, keeping it in a shoe box, starts, everyday you open the box. Mama it's still a worm. Leave it there don't touch it, change the leaf. Keep the environment the same, and then after a few days, this gorgeous worm wiggling starts putting a silk line out, making a cocoon, but from inside. It uses, to my understanding as a child, his tail as a point of reference and starts silking around it. Then suddenly, the worm, gradually you see the shadow of it, and then you see the cocoon, and we wait anxiously, what it's going to be, when it's going to be the time when we see the freedom, and the butterfly flies. Then because it's in the box we catch the butterfly. For a few second it is ours, and then the butterfly flies. (1:48). It goes free.

This machine is that machine. We already made you the cocoon. You bring the P of the man inside, we nourish it to the KOC, and we get the freedom of the soul, the butterfly. There is no difference. In the point of mutation and conversion. It's understanding the knowledge of the freedom of the STM.

Many times when I look at this system, I say, I wonder which butterflies, and what colored butterflies will come out of this system, when they go in as a moth, as a man, as a D of P, to take the flight of fancy, to become the new, to see a new black seed, and next year I'll have another one. Sometimes we used to keep these butterflies until they laid the eggs and then they used to die. But the STM does not reach that point of death, he becomes part of the other.

We have given you the cocoon you have to make that butterfly to fly. This is the beauty of the knowledge if you understand it. This is where we lacking the knowledge, most of you KS, this part. It's a time for change. We have laid the leaf, we have put the seed in, (1:50). we have seen the worm, cycle of life of man for thousands of years, and now we have made you the cocoon, it's you to understand it.

In the future man will make that silk cocoon from the soul of itself, to allow its STP to become embedded within the STM, and to take the flight of fancy. But the beauty of this is, if you understand it, you can take any flight of fancy, anytime that you wish. Then you can lay your eggs anywhere in the U, as a new cycle of life. (1:50:41)

Any question.

MaGrav teaching : (2:28:17 to 2:28:40)

You need a nuclear power station to transfer one it can be done, 1 cell across totally with all its characteristics and memories. It takes a small MaGrav unit with no power supply to transfer the whole STM and STP of the man. You have to understand the knowledge.
