

First of all, the main focus of our attention is the 5plus1 negotiations for world peace and that the nations of the world will accept the Enhancement Units with love. If people would like, they can join this additional intention as well.

MaGrav Visualization

We have to respect both the STP, and the physicality. The physicality is an amalgamation of the souls, which by their interactions and collective work, they create the STP in interaction with the environment. This interaction gives it physicality. At the same time, (the totality of all) the collective soul interactions create the STM.

"We are created by the dimension of the creation of our own strength, by our own understanding and no more."

If we look at ourselves deeply

Who we are now

This is what we understand

The extent of our knowledge about creation

We can go further, it's up to us

This is from the 425 KSW a teaching about the heart and how the STP is created. We can visualize the 2 sides of the heart gathering all those fields from the whole body, and spinning around each other creating the STP, and then the STP in the heart, interacting with the STM in the center of the head. It feels so complete, like a complete feeling of myself, not cut up into parts, or confusion anymore. And then seeing the 3 MaGrav coils 1st reproductive unit, 2nd heart and intestine, and 3rd is the STP in the position of the STM, and the straight line up to the Creator - the All Seeing Eye, while all the time, with the intention of spreading the technology and creating world peace. It feels like having the STP in the place of the STM - is elevation of the STP.

When asked if making a MaGrav would be like saying a prayer to God for peace, since they organize the fields of emotion in the environment? He replied, "partially in a way you can participate, if you know how to use it, yes."

With this in mind, let us focus our intention that all the Knowledge Seekers try to go deeper inside and want to understand and enjoy the MaGrav. Not for the greed of power, but for the Knowledge of the Creation that it will bring, and the joy of being part of the fields of the Creator. Remember every turn of the MaGrav coil creates fields, and when these fields interact they create plasmas. Our souls inside us are also plasmas, they interact with the MaGrav fields and create plasmas. Through our desire to serve the creation we can open up to these fields and energies and satisfy our needs, and give the rest to the others to enjoy.

Let's take a few minutes of SILENCE to focus our intention - not mentally pushing to have our way - but lovingly remaining open, to what is best for humanity at this time - and wishing for the knowledge to manifest in physicality.
