This workshop is filled more than usual with a watershed of different knowledge's. It needs to be listened to many times to grasp the depth of the Soul teachings, especially near the end of part 1. Sometimes it is difficult to hold all this information at the same time in ones head. What seems to stand out most in this workshop is the explanation of the STM or the Soul and the physicality (P) as being like two curtains. The First Curtain is controlled by the eyelids or eyelashes, and when we open our eyelashes we see the physical world and interact with it. And the "Second Curtain" or second eye is the STM. We are pretty much stuck in the First Curtain, so let's discuss the Second Curtain, which is basically the dimension (D) of the Soul.

We actually open the Second Curtain when we dream, then we are in the Soul D and we travel and meet other Souls, but the thing is we don't have much control over it and we have to wait until our sleep time, or sometimes it happens during the waking state and we say the person is daydreaming. When we learn to open the Second Curtain then we don't have to be asleep and our Soul will operate in both dimensions of the Soul and P. He said, it is very difficult to achieve this and at first it will be confusing as to what is the real reality. We are used to having the boundary of sleep dividing the work of the Soul from the work of P, and now that boundary will be lifted and we will function in both dimensions at the same time. In fact, we will always be in the "real" world, because the Soul will be in the center of our lives. Right now we have the STM being controlled by the Soul of the Physicality (STP) and when we open the Second Eye then they both will function together in harmony, and the STP and P will not be able to lie to the STM. You will know the truth.

It's important for us to understand that we don't need intermediaries to reach this level of awareness. We have to reach on our own through our emotion and our behavior in the D of P. There will be no room for false intermediaries to claim this or that and enslave us, because we don't know the truth ourselves. Now the knowledge will come from within. We will even know the truth about those we love, and whether or not they truly love us. At the moment we live a kind of schizophrenic life, which is mainly in the P but sometimes we get a glimpse of the Soul and have what we call, beautiful experiences. Now we will be able to multitask and coordinate the STM with the STP.

One of the things we may notice in our lives is that sometimes somebody suddenly calls us and we say, "oh, I was just thinking about you and you called." Now we know it was not a coincident, rather our Soul was already communicating with the other Soul without our knowing it, and then when the action happened we were surprised. Now we understand the science of it. When we think about something and it happens, it's because the STM gets the STP who gets the P to do the things that the Soul wants. And it also happens the other way where the STP gets the Soul to do things. So we actually have two different persons inside us. And the example given was, like holding two different mobile phones in our hand, one for the P and the other for the Soul. When this first breaks through into society, then maybe the patients will put their psychologists in the chair, and explain it to them.

Communicating through the Soul doesn't require the physical written or spoken word. Those things are only for the joy of confirming what was already communicated. If you meet your true Soul Mate one of the ways you will know is that you communicate to each other without the words being spoken. "When the Soul hugs the lover's Soul, so does the P." We will speak less and understand the fields and emotions of life.

The emotion is what connects the STM with the STP and allows them to become one. Then you see everything at the same time and it's like one Soul inside the other. When Souls meet, even in a dream and you feel it physically, it's because the STP creates the emotion. When the STP gets cocooned inside the STM what happens to the brain? It actually turns into plasmatic fields, and this allows the Soul to travel and manifest anywhere in the U without endangering the STP. We need to understand all this if we want to live our life in the U.

Mr. Keshe discussed what the experience of opening the Second Curtain is like. It's not really a method, rather more like a hint. He says, first close the eye of P and open the Soul eye and bring the emotion in and interact with STP - then you will see the light - then pass through some darkness which is the extension of the Soul of yourself - then first you'll see lights then shining Souls and hear every Knowledge and Voices in the U. We can try to work with these images. Another easy way is to feel your heartbeat and in the clarity of emotions and feelings reach the point of Servitude then you'll see a white light coming towards you. He also talked about making your Soul open and transparent.

Remember that the whole purpose of all the teachings is for us to as fast as we can, come close and meet the Soul of the Creator. And we do this through our actions on earth. It's our behavior and what we do in the D of P that adds energy to our Souls, or takes it away. Think, speak and act good is for our benefit. Mr. Keshe gave us the MaGravs so that we could add energy and elevate our Soul, not to save electricity. The Cu connects to our muscles and comes from the Soul of Earth & the U. The Creator is constantly showering love on us so that we will elevate our Souls and join Him again, and that is also how He receives love from His creations. The Creator experience both D of P and energy as we do. And that's what it means, "I made man in the Image of Myself." The beautiful part is that we are already part of the Universal Community, only we have denied it for P. At the moment of inception we are part of it. Now all the teachings are skillfully being brought together for us to know the Totality.

More about Jesus' life was brought up in this workshop and that the Bible was changed by different Christian sects to suit them, and also so that certain people could rule their sect. The worst of them being the Catholic Church, who created nothing but lies for their followers to believe in. I don't know where the information about the "72 ships" of Christ is, but Mr. Keshe has mentioned this several times and said, Jesus made the statement that his message will be carried by the 72 ships. Anyway, it certainly has turned out to be true, because there are many factions in Christianity. The historical information is carried by the Jewish historians, and we know what the Catholic Church would have done to them whenever they found out they had that information, destroy or hide it. The Jewish historians wrote about Jesus at around the same time he lived. As they say, history is written by those who conquer. And as children we believe whatever they teach us until we find the strength and courage to question what our life is about.

The question about whether Jesus was taught transmutation 40 days before his crucifixion was answered, that anybody can write what they want. But if he would have known, then he would not have gone on the cross. The knowledge is given at the time of need. The main point here is that there is a lot of fallacy and fantasy that has been gathering over 2,000 years and now it is time for us to mature to the real knowledge about our own transmutation and what we can do to elevate our own Soul. Breaking these concepts means it is time to grow up. Okay, are we ready to admit that Jesus is not the person we were taught to believe in. The problem is we cannot go back and physically find out the truth, because the information has been changed or destroyed. Part of us wants to try to ignore it or fix up the story. But Mr. Keshe is not giving us that way out. Instead, we have to go inside and find the energy within us, that can do the same things as he did. And many have already done it in the Enhancement Units in Linz. Then we'll find the true Christ within ourselves. One last note on this. To get the original teaching Mr. Keshe gave in Books 1, 2, and 3, you have to find the first edition. The one they sell in the Store is the second edition and it has been diluted and filtered through the editors own understanding. She was only to correct the English, but instead she added her own interpretation.

Another way to travel the U is to entrust our Soul to a "Captain" and their Soul has to be strong enough to envelop ours and carry us to a destination, where they release us and we manifest a new P. To do this our STP goes inside our STM, which is really just a plasma inside of another plasma. We are doing the same thing with the Captain, our Souls are going inside of his Soul. It's the same pattern repeating itself. It's also like what we do inside the womb of our mother. And this is the same pattern that occurs with viruses.

What we call a virus in the U is a pack of energy that has intelligence and a Soul, and inside its Soul is a STP. But wait a minute, this is what we just said about ourselves and how we can travel in the U. But we are calling this a virus and we're afraid of it and want to kill it. These beings, what we call "virus" are all over the U. How are we going to coexist with them? This is where we have to expand our knowledge and believe in the strength of our own Soul as an independent plasma. This is why Mr. Keshe asked us, why did some people get Corona and others not? And that the ones that got it accepted to share energy with it, but to keep themselves alive, and after each entity took what it needed they separated from each other. Then he said we can stand up against the strongest plasmatic fields in the U and interact with them, but still remain ourselves. Then he compared it to the Soul of another man, and said it was a "virus."

Another thing to remember is that when we agree to travel inside another Soul, or a Captain, they have to trust us also. If along the way we decide to manifest the dimension of P, then we would become a parasite to them. So are parasites in our body non-dimensional energies that we have agreed to allow into our body at some level, and then they manifest P while inside? It's amazing to think about this and it's also very simple and easy to understand. If we accept it, then we all will become plasma scientists. And the key is being able to change the M field strength of a position or an environment.

If you are part of the Brazilian Daily Intention, then you know that we say, we don't need to go on the streets to bring change, we do it through the Soul. In today's teaching Mr. Keshe referred to and implied that we are bringing the change through our wishes. He is guiding us so skillfully down this path, that we don't even know what effect we are having on the world. He mentioned that the Chinese Press has announced its colonization program for the Moon. Of course, it's still only in the matter state, but for them to make such a statement indicates that they have access to other technologies that is not being revealed in public. If you want to know how far the technology is advancing in society, then we have to look at other indicators than the front page of newspapers. The fact that for 10 years they have allowed Mr. Keshe to continue teaching across the world without being banned. This is actually a huge indicator. Remember Iran is under sanctions and Mr. Keshe as a Iranian passport holder and nuclear physicist is traveling all over the world without hindrance and is welcomed with open arms. He said without a doubt the world leaders have sided with KF, but that they are letting him take the heat and later they will claim the success when it finally comes out. We still have a long way to go, and we have to keep persevering. He knows more than what he can say in public. But at the end he thanked all those who continuously and tirelessly work to bring the technology out. That we wouldn't be where we are today without all of our support.

Finally, we have to mention that the whole purpose of these teachings here on Earth and across the U is to bring us closer to the Soul of the Creator. We do the work in P to add energy and elevation to our STP and through our emotion we open the Second Curtain and our lives changes and we start living in the Soul. We don't need to be carried by another plasma. We become an independent and free plasma that is part of the Creator.

End the illusion of separation between STP & STM;
Main target for elevating the Soul of child abusers are world leaders, who promote and live through this structure;
